

Remember, the BSP consumer assistance mechanism does not cover the following complaints:

- disputes over BSFI policies and procedures, such as administrative policies or labor/employment issues, which do not violate banking laws or BSP regulations
- cases that are currently pending with any court or quasi-judicial body
- matters involving institutions not supervised by the BSP, such as lending investors, finance companies, insurance companies, cooperatives, or microfinance non-government organizations. BSP will refer these complaints to the appropriate regulators or government agencies

The BSP Financial Consumer Protection Framework provides an enabling environment that protects the interest of financial consumers and ensures that BSFIs are responsive to the needs of their clients,

01 What to do first...

Immediately contact or talk to the Manager or appropriate officer of the BSP-Supervised Financial Institution (BSFI)*. Clarify your concerns directly with the BSFI. Lodge a formal complaint with the BSFI.

Put your complaint in writing so that the BSFI Management can officially deal with your concern in a timely manner. In your written complaint, always remember to put the date, your name, and your signature. Keep a copy, duly received by the BSFI, for your personal use.

02 If your concerns are unresolved by the BSFI, here's what to do next...

Submit your written complaint to the BSP through postal mail, email, or fax. You may also call or proceed to the BSP Manila Office or the nearest BSP Regional Office or Branch.

Remember to bring or attach to your mail/email:

- ✓ Copy of the complaint duly received by the BSFI, together with the BSFI's reply, if any.
- ✓ Copies of other documents that support your complaint.
- ✓ Typed or legibly printed summary of your complaint with:
 - Details of your concerns
 - The resolution you are requesting
 - Telephone number/s and email address where you can be reached during the day
 - Identification card/s
